American Rural

There's a lot of us out here in rural and small town America, probably more than you think.

According to the Census
there are 59M rural Americans.

• Plus, another 29M Americans live in communities with populations between 2,500 and 50,000

• Totalling
that means almost 29% of America lives in either a rural area or a smaller community

29%

By Contrast

Fewer than 2M Americans live in a city with a population of over 1M

Only 13.5% live in one of America's 50 largest cities.
